UPDATE ON ANNETTE AND ALAN HONE

Annette and Alan took off on Thursday 18th August for Papua New Guinea (PNG) stopping at Doha, Singapore, Port Moresby and then arriving at Mount Hagen where they are based on Saturday 20th August exhausted but glad to be back. Alan was straight back to work as they desperately needed him, and Annette got on with unpacking and familiarising herself again with the local markets and supermarkets, stocking up. A new pilot called Brandon arrived with the Hones along with his wife Nellicia and their toddler Nova. They ask for prayer as they all settle back into their roles with Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF).
