THE SUNDAY MIX HOLIDAY CLUB SERVICE

This month's Sunday Mix is going to focus on all the fun that happened at this year's holiday club and what the children learned. There will be a BBQ.

THANK YOU

A huge thank you to everyone across our team who helped to make our Holiday Club a huge success!

FOODBANK REQUIREMENTS

The Foodbank are in need of: Porridge; Squash & fruit juice; Instant mashed potato; Tinned:-potatoes, spaghetti & sponge pudding; Jams & spreads; Crisps & crackers; Chocolate; Biscuits. Donations can be left in the office or at the back of St. Mark's

BUILDING THE KINGDOM

Our team at St. Michael's is growing extraordinarily. We are so thankful for God bringing people into ministry and service. The next area we would like to see people deploying their skills into at St. Michael's is in managing the building projects that are coming up. If you are a skilled, organised, friendly, professional and timely person who feels called to helping us progress our aspirations for St. Michael's building, speak to Rev. Andy Bunter - 07425154454.

GARDEN SWING

Mandy Marler has a wooden garden swing bench available to anyone who can arrange for collection. There is no cost, but a donation to St. Mark's would be appreciated. Please contact Mandy via the team office if you're interested.

ADVANCED NOTICE

THE SANCTUARY COURSE
Wednesday 4th September to
Wednesday 23rd October,
2pm at St. Mark's

For those who would like some training and advice on how to be supportive to those struggling with mental health issues, the Sanctuary Course offers a fantastic opportunity. The feedback from the previous courses is that this is great resource, thoughtfully and carefully presented. Please speak to Harry Waterman for more information.
